Set in downtown Toronto and 1 km from the Art Gallery of Ontario, this sleek conference hotel is also 1.4 km from the CN Tower as well as less than ten minutes walking distance to Toronto's Entertainment District. In addition to this it is also connected to Toronto's underground pathway linking 30 kilometers of shopping, services and entertainment.

The hotel also has a 2.5-acre waterfall garden, an indoor/outdoor pool with a poolside bar, a hot tub, a sauna, a spa, fitness facilities and a business center. There are also 60 meeting rooms, a casual eatery and a cafe.

Traditional rooms King and DD

Traditional Rooms feature large windows that allow impressive views of Toronto, while Deluxe Rooms look out to the skyline from higher floors. In a Traditional Room, fees are charged for wired and wireless High Speed Internet Access and for local and 800-number calls from the dual-line telephone; these amenities are complimentary in a Deluxe Room.

In every guest room, a large mahogany desk incorporates a built-in power panel to help you stay productive. A 40-inch TV makes it easy to relax at the end of a long day.

Choose from one king-size or two double Sheraton Signature Sleep Experience beds for a great night's sleep. Upgraded bathrooms include marble countertops and large mahogany-framed mirrors.

BnB

Located in the lobby, BnB is a contemporary bistro and bar whose warm, social environment encourages connections between locals and guests from all over the world. Playfully meaning “Burgers and Beyond,” BnB features some of the city’s finest burgers and comfort foods.

In the morning, our extensive breakfast buffet is the focal point of the bistro. Its highlight is a gorgeous open-concept window where guests can watch our immensely talented station chefs in action.

At night, our beautifully designed bar and lounge becomes the centre of attention. A thoughtful selection of local and imported draughts ensures that there’s a refreshing beer choice for everyone.

Link Café

The Link Café offers freshly brewed Starbucks® coffee, Great Canadian Bagels™, breakfast pastries, fresh fruit, and sandwich selections. It’s the perfect spot to relax over a cup of coffee and a delightful breakfast.
