Deadline: Thursday February 14th, 2019 by 4:00pm

Volunteers are needed to deliver an outstanding WMA Toronto 2020 Championship!

We are currently seeking experienced individuals to lead various functional areas within WMA TO2020's Administration and Event Support Services. Many of these leadership positions do not require direct experience in Athletics. We seek enthusiastic volunteers with a passion for sport and across a range of backgrounds: administration, project management, hospitality, marketing and social media, human resources & training, security management, supervisory experience.

Benefits of Volunteering with TO2020

- ✓ experience in working for a global organization dedicated to the sport of Athletics
- ✓ direct exposure to high calibre masters Athletics and the TO2020 executive team
- ✓ reap the rewards of contributing to your community: use your proven skills or take this opportunity to gain knowledge and new skills
- ✓ leaders will actively contribute, create memorable experiences for thousands of participating athletes, and showcase Toronto's world-class and inclusive culture.

TO2020 Background:

Toronto Athletics Event Management Inc. (TAEM) has been contracted by World Masters Athletics (WMA) to organize and host two major Championships:

- 2019 North and Central America and Caribbean Region of WMA Championships (NCCWMA2019) – July 18th-21st 2019
- 2020 World Masters Athletics Championships (TO2020) – July 20th – August 1st 2020

TAEM is a not-for-profit, registered corporation whose purpose is to promote and organize athletics events, sports, games and recreational events, and foster goodwill and sportsmanship. TAEM operates under the direction of the Board of Directors and with the guidance of a Local Organizing Committee.

Founded in 1975, the WMA oversees World Championships for masters-aged athletes (35 years of age and over) and works in cooperation with the International Association of Athletics Federations.

The WMA Outdoor Championships are hosted every two years. Toronto expects about 9,000 athletes and guests from over 70 countries to attend our championships in 2020. The event will be hosted over a period of thirteen days and will take place at six Toronto venues.
